RALLIES TO DRAW IMMENSE CROWDS

DEMOCRATS AND REPUBLICANS DOING EXTENSIVE ADVERTISING.

BIGGEST MEETINGS IN CITY'S HISTORY

Both Parties Planning for Reception and Entertainment of Guests—Decorations Progressing.

Maryville will be host to a large crowd at the Republican rally to be held tomorrow and at the Democratic rally on Thursday. Both meetings have been extensively advertised over the county and large delegations from a number of townships will be here.

The Republican rally will be held at the court house and the afternoon meeting will begin at 1:30 o'clock. Judge Henry Lamm, Republican candidate for governor, Senator James W. Wadsworth of New York, and Editor C. D. Morris of the St. Joseph Gazette, will be the speakers. In the evening the meeting will begin at 7:30 o'clock. Congressman Phil Campbell of Kansas and A. M Hyde of Trenton will speak. Dr. Jacob Geiger, Republican candidate for congressman from this district will be here. After the afternoon meeting Judge Lamm and Editor Morris are to leave for Tarkio where they will speak that evening.

The Republicans are planning a big demonstration and reception for Judge Lamm and the other speakers, who will arrive on the noon Burlington train tomorrow. A large number of cars will meet the speakers at the train and the visitors will be taken to the Linville hotel where a banquet will be given in their honor.

In addition to music by the Maryville band, the Skidmore band will be here that day, the Republicans of Monroe township bringing the band over with them.

The Democrats are busy at work boosting their rally on Thursday, when Vice-President Thomas R Marshall will be here. Nearly fifteen cars of Democrats left this morning for a tour of Nodaway county to advertise this meeting. Some of the cars went over the eastern part of the county, and the others in the western section of the county.

Besides the number of noted speakers billed for addresses at the Democratic rally, a feature of the evening performance will be the showing of 3,000 feet of moving pictures depicting the principal scenes of the National Democratic Convention at St. Louis.

These pictures have been shown at only three other places in Missouri and are said to be interesting. Pictures of noted Democrats will also be thrown on the screen and excerpts from their speeches will be given.

Vice-President Marshall and Mrs. Marshall will arrive on the noon Burlington train Thursday, and it is probable that Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia, Frank W. McAllister, candidate for attorney general, Charles M. Hay, Congressman Charles F. Booher, Governor A. M. Dockery and a number of other distinguished Democrats will come at that time.

The Scoville tent, in which the Democrats will hold their rally, will be put up tomorrow.

The streets of the city are being decorated with flags by the Commercial Club, and the merchants are also requested to decorate their stores for this occasion. If the weather is good Maryville will entertain the largest crowd that has ever been here for a Democratic meeting.

The last part of the evening will be called the "Play Hour," and will be conducted by Miss Nell Hudson. Gymnasium work and games will occupy this portion of the time.

DODGERS BEAT RED SOX 4 TO 3

Special to the Democrat-Forum.

Brooklyn, Oct. 10.—The third game of the world's series went to Brooklyn today 4-3. Boston played a come-back game, and it looked for a time as if the score would be tied. Mayes and Thomas started the game as the Boston battery, but Mayes was relieved in the sixth by Foster, who held Brooklyn scoreless after that. Coombs started in the box for Brooklyn but had to give up to Pfeffer in the seventh. Miller did the catching. Brooklyn played an errorless game.

H. S. TEAM LOSES

GOES DOWN TO DEFEAT AT STANBERRY WITH SCORE 34-0.

TEAM HAS FINE SUPPORT

Sixty Maryville Football Fans Go Over to Game—Local Boys Showed Lack of Team Work.

About sixty football fans of Maryville went over to Stanberry to see the M. H. S. team take Stanberry's scalp. They came back—but without the scalp. The boys went down to a 34-0 defeat. It sounds bad, but they have nothing to be ashamed of. They played a good clean game against a better and more experienced team. The defeat will probably do them more good than a victory would have done. The material is undoubtedly there and the team is bound to improve. There is no game scheduled for next Friday. The boys will start real work right away, and they confidently expect to beat Savannah here October 20.

Now for the sad details. Stanberry won the toss and chose to receive. Egley kicked off and before some of the Maryville fellows realized that they were in a real football game Stanberry had marched down the field for a touchdown and kicked goal. Score, 7-0.

Stanberry kicked off. Maryville received but lost the ball on an intercepted pass. Stanberry then marched down the field for another touchdown and kicked goal. Score 14-0.

After the first quarter the Maryville team tightened up and showed flashes of real football. They were unable to penetrate Stanberry's defense within scoring distance, however, while Stanberry made three more touchdowns before the game ended, kicking goal on all but one of them. Stanberry's chief strength lies in the excellent interference they give the man with the ball, while Maryville's weakness was in the lack of this team work.

Maryville's only consistent ground gainer was Ernest Daniels. Clark Evans showed up at right guard in the short time he was in the game. The only injury of the game was suffered by Joe Kemp, who was only temporarily disabled, his place being taken by Paul Pickens.

The most encouraging feature of the game was the support given the team. The high school students are to be congratulated on the spirit they showed. Eleven cars made the trip carrying about sixty people, including the players. If the students continue to give the team such good support, the season will at least be financially successful.

PAUL MILLER INJURED

Son of Dr. Jesse Miller Suffers Broken Shoulder Blade and Other Injuries as Ford Turns Over.

Paul Miller, son of Dr. Jesse Miller, suffered a broken shoulder blade and other injuries in an automobile accident near Ravenwood about 8:30 o'clock last night. In the same car with Miller was Francis Barmann, who was driving the car, Paul Pickens, Ferd Masters and Robert McGinity of Elmo.

The boys had been to the high school foot ball game at Stanberry Monday afternoon and were on their way home. The front wheel of the car broke and came off and the car probably ran ten feet before turning completely over with Miller underneath. Barmann received a number of bruises about the face, Pickens sustained a few minor injuries, as did also Masters.

The Pickens car which they were using, was badly damaged.

A WILSON-MARSHALL ORGANIZATION PERFECTED THERE.

JOHN CLARY, PRESIDENT

Barnard Club to Hold Meeting Tonight With W. A. Blagg as Speaker—B. J. to Organize.

A Wilson-Marshall club was organized at Clearmont last night at a meeting held in the opera house of that town. The organization started out with twenty-five charter members and many more will be secured this week. The officers selected were John Clary, president; J. H. Billingsley, secretary, and J. W. Smith, treasurer.

M. E. Ford, chairman of the Democratic county committee; Will G. Sawyers and E. C. Moberly were in attendance at the meeting from Maryville.

Clearmont and Atchison county will be well represented at the Democratic meeting held Thursday. The club is planning to bring a large delegation and probably will secure the band at that place.

The Wilson-Marshall club organized at Barnard last week will hold a meeting this evening in the opera house of that town. W. A. Blagg will be the main speaker. Several of the county candidates will attend.

Plans for a club at Burlington Junction are progressing nicely, and such a one will be organized probably the latter part of the week.

SING PRAISES OF U-53

Submarine's Exploits a Surprise to Berlin Newspapers—Official Comment Withheld.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Berlin, Oct. 10 (via London).—The submarine U-53 yesterday furnished two surprises for the people of Berlin, the first its unexpected arrival at Newport and then the reports of the sinking by the submarine of British freighters off the American coast. The exploits of the submarine occasioned long and enthusiastic press comment.

Regardless of the various attitudes of the newspapers with regard to the present submarine controversy, all the journals express the keenest pride and pleasure in the achievements of the U-53, dilating particularly on the fact that she was able to resume her voyage from Newport and operate against enemy merchanmen without taking advantage of the international privilege of replenishing her fuel and other supplies.

There is no fear of complications with the United States over the warlike activity of the submarine, as it is generally assumed in official as well as newspaper circles that her operations are being conducted in accordance with the requirements of cruiser warfare as specified by the law of nations and recognized by the American government.

No information is obtainable here concerning the voyage of the U-53 or her mission, nor is anything said as to whether other submarines than the U-53 are operating in trans-Atlantic waters, or are on their way there.

SMITH LAUDS REED

FOR HIS WORK ON THE CURRENCY LAW.

WILL SPEAK AT RALLY

Georgia Senator is Making a Number of Speeches in Missouri This Week—Outlook is Fine for Wilson.

Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia, who will be the speaker at the evening meeting of the Democratic rally in Maryville Thursday, was in St. Louis Sunday and will give a number of addresses in Missouri this week. Senator Smith was a member of Cleveland's cabined and later was governor of Georgia, and in 1911 was elected senator from that state.

Senator Smith spoke at Shelbyville Monday, today at Polo, Wednesday at Excelsior Springs, Thursday at Maryville, Friday at Lexington, and Saturday at Richmond.

"This is the year the campaign speaker can't do anything but speak for Wilson," he says. "Hughes is doing it every day. Why, it's greater to be a Democrat in the ranks today than to have been a United States senator ten years ago. When I talk I think of so many things to say about what the Democrats have done that, in positive contrition and magnanimity for the Republicans, I pause."

Praises Reed's Services.

"I would like to have the chance to tell St. Louisians something that I am going to tell every Missourian I see this week. It concerns their junior senator, James A. Reed, and the present currency bill. That bill is a sound money bill. It forever removes business in the United States from false manipulation and gives it a freedom it never had before.

"There is no man in the United States senate who deserves more credit for the excellence of that bill than senator Reed. I know, I rubbed elbows with him for two weeks in party caucus on that measure. Senator Reed was at every session. He stayed late at night. He had a wonderful grasp of the problem. Not more than a dozen men in that caucus. They did the real work, and the best worker of the twelve was Reed. That's what I think of Missouri's junior senator.

GRAND JURY RECOMMENDS PROSECUTOR BE HELD FOR TRIAL.

CASE TO BE TRIED SOON

McDaniel, in Jail, Says It is a Political Frame-Up—The Grand Jury Closed Its Investigation Today.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

St. Joseph, Oct. 10.—Oscar D. McDaniel, county prosecutor, was indicted by the special grand jury which has been investigating the murder of his wife, and recommended he be held for trial on this charge. The jury has been in session over ten days and many witnesses were examined.

McDaniel, in jail, claims it was a political frame-up.

Bart M. Lockwood, special prosecutor for the state, had charge of the hearing.

That a slung shot was used in the murder of Mrs. Oscar McDaniel is the theory of some of the detectives who have been working on the case, but no such weapon has been found in the house of the murdered woman, and if such an instrument was used, it probably was destroyed.

One of the members of the city detective force who has appeared before the grand jury is authority for the statement that the prosecutor has carried such a weapon, in addition to the revolver which he nearly always had with him. It is customary for prosecutors to go armed, at least Buchanan county prosecutors have usually had the habit of carrying revolvers, and McDaniel was no exception of this rule. A terrific blow could be delivered with a slung shot.

U. S. REFUSES TO SUBMIT TO ANY STOPPAGE OF TRADE.

LANSING AND WILSON IN CONFERENCE TODAY

President Will Not Reach Decision Until After Consultation With Secretary of State.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Washington, Oct. 10.—That the United States will not submit to any operations by belligerent warships that have even the appearance of a blockade of American ports is the decision already reached by the administration today. The only thing known is that Lansing confers with Wilson this afternoon. All of the officials are silent on the question.

Paris, Oct. 10.—The French newspapers generally take the view that the submarine warfare was carried on more to see its effect upon the United States than for any other reason.

Will Decide Later.

Shadow Lawn, Oct. 10.—Wilson made it known today that he would not reach a decision regarding a submarine crisis until he had consulted with Lansing.

Looking For Survivors.

Newport, Oct. 10.—A fleet of fifteen U. S. destroyers left here at 11 o'clock this morning to look for a boat load of sailors from the steamer Kingston, who are still reported missing. A rigid watch is also being made to keep submarines from becoming active in neutral waters.

Tells of Submarine Policy.

New York, Oct. 10.—The letter which Captain Rose of the U-53 sent to Bernstorff contained brief notes from the German foreign office outlining the present attitude on the submarine issue. This was learned from an absolutely trustworthy source today.

Spain Issues Orders.

London, Oct. 10.—A Madrid dispatch says that definite orders were issued by the Spanish government prohibiting the revictualling of foreign submarines in Spanish waters.

Mobile, Ala., Oct. 10.—Despite the menace of submarines, the big Lyland liner Asian, loaded with cotton, lumber and other supplies for the British government, sailed for Liverpool today.

An admission in the Chicago Tribune that Wilson may carry Illinois is considered by Democrats as of the greatest significance. That paper is devoting its editorial page and news columns to consistent and ardent support of Mr. Hughes and has been even more bitter in its attacks upon President Wilson than the Republican candidate and his colaborers on the stump. Here is the way the Tribune confesses the Illinois situation now stands: "Illinois is a doubtful state on the presidency. At this moment the chances are even Wilson will carry the state, taking all conditions in Chicago and down state into consideration. These are the facts in the case and Republican state leaders know they are."—News-Press.

Is Your Watch a Gay Deceiver?

When you consult your watch, do you have to guess where the minute hand belongs? Does your watch mock your intelligence with constant inaccuracies?

Are you the unfortunate possessor of a watch from whose use you get little satisfaction and from whose ownership you derive no pride?

If so, indulge us for a moment while we tell you about the Hamilton watch.

No Hamilton Watch is made with less than 17 jewels.

Railroads will not permit an employee, responsible for the life and safety of passengers to carry a watch with less than 17 jewels.

On most American railroads every man on a train crew must have his watch inspected periodically and must equip himself with a watch that does not vary over 30 seconds a week. Railroad men naturally choose their watches with care and purpose.

The majority of railroad men carry Hamilton Watches. THEIR watches keep accurate time.

Now the question is, do you really want a watch that keeps accurate time?

If you do, come in and let us show you the Hamiltons.

PLAYED FOR HELEN KELLER

Zoellner Quartet Charms Deaf and Blind Girl With Rendition of Masterpieces——Uses Touch.

A very interesting and beautiful experience of the Zoellner quartet during their long tour of America this past season was their meeting and playing privately for the wonderful deaf and blind girl, Helen Keller, and her teacher, Mrs. Macy, while in Oklahoma City. Miss Keller was in that city on account of a lecture engagement.

She could not see the players nor hear the music, but through her sense of touch and possibly some peculiar sense of feeling she could appreciate every shade of tone. As they played Helen Keller stood with finger tips laid lightly on the resonant wood of a table placed before her, apparently listening with bent head. She could not hear the notes, but the vibrations of the music were interpreted as appreciatively as though she possessed a trained sense of hearing.

"It is beautiful," she exclaimed softly as the music ceased. "You don't know how much I appreciate it." "I feel the vibration and the measured rhythm in music, so I, too, can enjoy it even though I do not hear it." Miss Keller responded instantly to the music, swaying in rhythm and trembling while tears slowly gathered in the bright unseeing eyes, or smiling joyously and breathing deeply with emotion. For hours the girl, who can neither see nor hear, sat silently enjoying the music or describing in her quaint way the scene or visions that each number called to her mind.

Mr. Zoellner, in telling of Miss Keller, said that it was a remarkable experience, and that both he and the other members of the quartet felt that they were playing to a responsive instrument. She could interpret the themes of the composer in a wonderful manner. Of the andante of Tschaikowsky she said that she felt as though standing beside the great sea and felt the winds blowing on her face. Tschaikowsky took his theme from an old fisherman's song. No one had told Helen Keller of that, and yet without being able to hear a note she interpreted it beautifully.

FOR BETTER SEED CORN

What S. M. Jordan Says About It—Selection and Care Should Always Be Used.

Samuel M. Jordan of the Missouri State Board of Agriculture, known especially for his success in growing "better seed corn," in a conversation dropped the following offhand remarks:

Too many Missourians plant seed corn of not only poor breeding but also low in vitality.

Others plant some well bred corn that is low in vitality.

Some "send off" and buy shelled seed, and some get their seed from the common crib.

Knowing these things one can readily see one of the reasons why our corn yield is not better than it is.

In many fields the scrub stalks will average six per cent "and up."

"Why the scrub?" you ask. The two chief reasons are easy. One is that a scrub is commonly bred by a scrub, and the other may lack vitality in the seed grain.

In this last case it may not be a scrub, but a runt, the same as a well bred pig may be a runt.

But in the corn, how does the runt happen? It may happen through weak vitality caused by a lack of proper plant food, but more likely on account of the freezing while both grains and cobs are yet full of moisture.

Is your corn "mellow?" I do not know what other term to use, but try some of the ears by pressing hard on the ends of the grains and see if the grains sink lightly into the cob. If "mellow" the feeling is much the same as when you try an apple to find if it is mellow.

One cause may be the wet cob shrinking away from the grain—but this would be doubtful since this condition is not found much in the tight grained ears. It may be more likely that it is caused by heavy frost while the cobs are yet very wet, causing the grains to "heave" out like a post in wet soil, or as clover heaves out. When there was much moisture late in the fall, also early frost, it might readily be inferred that the last theory is the right one.

If three grains are given an equal chance, and two have good vitality and one low vitality, the three may grow—but the two good ones start first and have an advantage over the other one and one scrub or runt will be the result.

Plant runts and scrubs—and runts and scrubs will likely to be the result.

Get rid of the scrub by breeding and selection. Get rid of the runt by selection and care.

THE POULTRY HOUSE

What H. L. Kempster, of the Missouri Agricultural Experiment Station Says.

Light from all sides; ventilation in summer as well as in winter, and a comfortable house during extremes in temperature are features of the Missouri Poultry House, a new type which has been designed and is being recommended by the Missouri College of Agriculture. This house is described in Circular 80 of the Agricultural Experiment Station, Columbia, Missouri.

This house was designed by the department of poultry husbandry to meet the demands for a house of such size as to accommodate the average farm flock. Features of this house are windows on all sides, an arrangement which has advantages because the light is so distributed that the habit of laying eggs on the floor is discouraged, and also there is no piling up of the litter in dark corners due to the hen facing the light when she scratches, because there are no dark corners.

Another feature is the excellent summer ventilation which can be easily provided by removing the windows. This permits free circulation of the air. Additional comfort in summer is furnished by the use of a straw loft which acts as an insulation, protecting the hens from the extreme heat. This loft of straw also tends to keep the house dry during the winter.

"The plans for the house are very good and one of the best I have ever seen for the efficiency it will give," says a professor of poultry husbandry in one of the state agricultural colleges. This house is advised for the average farmer because it

1. Is cheaper to construct than the average house;
2. Has a ventilation that always works;
3. Is large enough to accommodate the average farm flock;
4. Is constructed of cheap material, yet is durable;
5. Has an excellent circulation of air during the summer and is a comfortable house;
6. Is easily constructed because uniform in type with other buildings found on the farm.

HOW TO PRUNE SHADE TREES.

The Proper Method of Cutting Back Soft Maples in Order to Strengthen and Thicken Their Tops.

A very timely circular is now available upon application to the Missouri college of agriculture, Columbia, Missouri. This circular, No. 81, is entitled Pruning Shade Trees.

Briefly, the circular states that to properly care for and preserve the beauty and symmetry of our ornamental shade trees it is necessary to understand what species may be "topped," and the method by which this should be accomplished. The most beneficial trees are those which are preserved in their natural form. To encourage additional strength and quantity of foliage, one must study the natural external structure of such specimens, and then apply the proper methods of pruning to obtain natural growth.

Two distinct type-structures occurring in tree growth are discussed with illustration, showing the undesirability of "cutting back," or, as it is more commonly called, "topping," of the American elm and similar trees, and of the proper way in which to "head up" the soft maple.

As the fall and winter seasons are particularly suitable times in which to conduct this work, the circular is one that may well be in the hands of those who are interested in preservation of lawn and street shade trees.—H. F. Major, Missouri agricultural experiment station.

MINISTER CHANGES CHURCH

Pastor of United Brethren at Maitland is "Hired" by Members of Christian Church.

Maitland, Mo., Oct. 10.—The Rev. W. H. Frame, who came here a year ago to take the pastorate of the United Brethren circuit, has proved such a leader in all civic as well as church affairs of Maitland that the official board of the Christian church has obtained his services rather than permit his transfer to the United Brethren church at Polo, Mo., to which he was assigned by the state conference at Raymore. He delivered his first sermon to his new congregation yesterday. When Rev. Frame came here from Denver, Colo., he found himself pastor of a church which had been closed for a year for lack of attendance and financial support. During his short pastorate he built up his circuit until it was one of the strongest in the county. The result was that when his transfer was made by the United Brethren conference he was invited by the Christian church to become its pastor. He accepted the offer.—News-Press.

RELIEVE HEADACHES WITHOUT DOSING

By Applying Sloan's Liniment to Forehead You Can Stop the Severe Pains.

Many headaches are of a neuralgic origin. The symptoms of such headaches are intense and lingering pains in the brow, temples or back of the head.

There is one certain relief that has been known and recommended for years back, Sloan's Liniment. One application and the dull pain is practically gone. It is easily applied without rubbing. Rubbing is unnecessary, as Sloan's Liniment quickly penetrates to the seat of trouble.

Aching muscles, rheumatism, bruises, lumbago, chilblains, sprains and stiff neck can also be most effectively treated with Sloan's Liniment. Cleaner than mussy plasters or ointments; it does not stain the skin or clog the pores.

At all drug stores, 25c, 50c, $1.00.

K. C. LIVE STOCK MARKET.

Kansas City Stock Yards, Oct. 9.—After Wednesday last week cattle receipts were light and the market gained some strength, though there was no actual advance. Today, with 31,000 cattle, prices are firm on steers and stockers and feeders, 10 to 15c higher on butcher cattle. Some of the Kansas districts will clean up this week, and prospects here favor smaller supplies and a stronger market.

Beef cattle—Heavy fed steers sold up to $10.60 today, a shade higher in some cases. Short fed grass steers went to $9.35, good grass steers around $8, medium kinds either way from $7, light steers, $6 to $6.65, steady to strong on most sales, the Bravo steers getting an early bid of $7.00, where they sold at best time last week. Chicago and Omaha were loaded up with northwestern rangers today, which makes the situation here better by comparison for shippers. Ten loads of quarantine steers, 906 pounds, sold at $6.25. Cows have been selling stronger for ten days, because of scarcity, canners $4.40 to $4.65, thin cows $5 to $5.50, good grass cows $5.75 to $6.75, fed cows around $7.25.

Stockers and feeders—Thirteen cars of high class panhandle yearlings, weighing 647 pounds, sold today at $7.10, and good panhandle twos sold at $6.65 to $7.00, weights around 825 pounds, prices called steady to strong with last week. At the finish last week there were some good bargains at $5.25 to $6.50, a quarter below first of the week, and that is a condition effective practically every week on Friday. Plain feeders sell around $6.50, fair to good feeders, $7 to $7.50, heavy fleshy feeders, $7.75 to $8.35, sometimes more.

Hogs—Hogs advanced 35 cents after Wednesday last week, and are strong to 5c higher today, receipts 10,000. Packers have abandoned their fight on the market for the present, and paid up to $9.75 for choice heavy hogs today, order buyers going to $9.80 for medium weights of best grade. Choice hogs weighing around 180 pounds sell up to $9.75, middle weight mixed hogs around $9.55, light hogs weighing 150 pounds at $9.20 to $9.40, bulk of all sales today $9.30 to $9.70. Receipts show signs of decreasing, since shippers believe packers have done their worst on this break, and there is profit in the feeding operation.

Sheep and lambs—Lambs sold 10 to 15c higher today, following a 50c rise after Monday last week, top $10.15 for choice range lambs. Common lambs sell down half a dollar below the tops. Feeding lambs are half a dollar higher than low time, now at $9.50 to $10.00. Sheep have made gains also, ewes selling at $6.75 to $7.25, wethers $7.25 to $7.75. Feeding ewes bring $5.50 to $6, breeding ewes firm, young ones worth $9 to $9.50, good mouths $8.25 to $8.75, short mouths $6.50 to $7.50.

Our Sunbeam.

A sunbeam came to us one day,
All happy and gladsome and bright;
We named her our own Mayfred Wray,
Who filled all our hearts with delight.

So loving and sweet and so fair,
And sprightly in all of her ways,
She seemed to dispel all our care—
A sunbeam for each of our days.

But now, oh, how dark is the day,
And how is earth robbed of its charms;
Our sunbeam has vanished away;
Our Mayfred has gone from our arms.

Yet, with our hearts empty and sad,
No sunbeam to now fill her place,
We pray, may the angels be glad
To look on her beautiful face.

And while it is darksome and drear,
To think of her under the sod,
'Tis error, and heaven's more dear,
Our Mayfred's at home with her God.
